Cross-Country Skiing

"Places, Peregrinations and Pontifications"

Bob Henderson

Tuesday Jan 24th

7:00 pm

Bob Henderson is an author, a former professor of Outdoor Education at McMaster University, an engaging speaker, an avid cross-country skier and... a long time Tumblehome customer! He has guided wilderness trips in all seasons for most of his life and passionately shares his stories, thoughts and philosophies. His slide presentation will take you to destinations such as Hut to Hut skiing in Norway, Assiniboine and Skoki Lodges in the Canadian Rockies as well as trails closer to home. This presentation will offer the best there is in cross-country skiing and it will be sure to inspire and entertain.

You won't want to miss it!

The Wabakimi Project

Phil Cotton

Wednesday March 7th

7:00 pm

Tumblehome and the Halton Outdoor Club are co-hosting this presentation which will promote the Wabakimi area as a world-class wilderness canoeing destination. Presenter Phil Cotton, a dedicated volunteer, will focus on recent trips and information about self-directed canoeing opportunities in the Wabakimi area. "Uncle" Phil is a retired music teacher, avid canoe historian and an active environmentalist who has guided trips for more than 55 years. Since 2004 he has devoted himself to the preservation and protection of canoe routes that lie within Wabikimi Park and adjacent crown lands

Sea Kayaking the Atlantic Coast

Scott Cunningham

Tuesday March 20th

7:00pm

This presentation will take you on a Maritime journey along some of Canada's most spectacular and rarely visited coastline. Presenter Scott Cunningham is a biologist and sea kayaker who has explored the Atlantic coast by canoe and sea kayak for three decades. In the summer of 1980 he circumnavigated the entire coastline of Nova Scotia in an open canoe, and in 1982 he established his own guiding company, Coastal Adventures. He has written extensively on coastal paddling for outdoor magazines and books and has published "Sea Kayaking in Nova Scotia".

Scott's passion for kayaking the stunning Atlantic Coast will delight and inspire.

Quest for Wilderness

Kevin Callan

Tuesday May 8th

7:00 pm

YMCA Burlington

500 Drury Lane, Burlington

Back by popular demand, Kevin will be sharing stories and slides from his summer adventures and misadventures. A highlight will be scenes from his new movie, "Quest for Wilderness" which features paddling in the serenity and beauty of one of Canada's largest Provincial Parks, Quetico. Other summer destinations include a lost route in Temagami and a family trip in Northern Scotland. Kevin will no doubt bring along his unique sense of humour and unethical presentation skills, making it a evening of entertainment and fun. Kevin is an author of many paddling related books, a well known speaker and a frequent guest on radio and television programmes.

To accommodate demand we have booked a larger venue. We would still ask you to please reserve in advance.
